

Contact: Crystal Burchette
615-822-4524
cburchette@daywind.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Amy Keffer-Shellem signs with Daywind Music Publishing

Nashville, TN – Daywind Music Group is pleased to announce the signing of Amy Keffer-Shellem to its roster of exclusive songwriters. Amy is a gifted singer and musician who is an integral part her family's ministry, The Keffers. As a writer, God has opened wonderful doors for her music to enter the church in the realm of choir octavos such as "He's Already There" and "One Look At the Cross". In 2002, her song, "The Blood Cried Out" received a Dove Award nomination. Amy's latest cut, "The Cross Was Enough", can be found on LordSong's new album, Soul Food.

"Amy has continually impressed me with insightful, powerful and biblically sound lyrics as well as music that connects with both the church and the Southern Gospel audience. We are truly honored to represent Amy and the music she is creating" commented Rick Shelton, Daywind Music Publishing's Creative Director.

"Daywind's excellence in Christian music ministry is highly respected and I'm thrilled to become a part of their family of writers. I'm anticipating great things" said Amy.

Amy, her husband, Mike, and new daughter, Carlie Elizabeth reside in Thomasville, GA.

For more information about Amy's music, contact Daywind Music Publishing, 615-826-8101.